1975

CHFA launches homeownership programs

CHFA issues $28 million in bonds and launches its Loans-to-Lenders home purchase program, which saw great success.

1976

Housing built following Big Thompson flood

CHFA partners with the Loveland Housing Authority and Colorado Division of Housing to support Silverleaf II, a 72-unit affordable rental housing development serving displaced seniors.

1982

CHFA begins small business finance

During a difficult economic environment, the Colorado General Assembly authorizes CHFA to administer programs to strengthen economic development.

2008

Foreclosure prevention programs created

CHFA partners with Brothers Redevelopment, the Colorado Division of Housing, and statewide industry leaders to sponsor the Colorado Foreclosure Hotline, a resource connecting homeowners at risk of foreclosure with free, HUD-approved housing counseling.

2014

State Housing Tax Credit renewed

The Colorado General Assembly renews the state AHTC program, bolstering much needed affordable rental housing in Colorado.

2015

Housing Preservation Network established

With the risk of approximately 22,000 affordable rental housing units' affordability restrictions expiring over the next decade, CHFA begins a preservation initiative within its own operations, and helps form the Colorado Housing Preservation Network (HPN).

Small-scale affordable housing technical assistance

Through a pilot program, CHFA begins offering pro-bono technical assistance to advance small-scale housing development from a team of affordable housing development consultants retained by CHFA.

2022

Middle-income Access Program

As accessing affordable housing becomes increasingly challenging for households earning moderate incomes, CHFA's Middle-income Access Program is supported with $25 million in state funds.

2022

Voters pass Proposition 123 to fund affordable housing

Through a statewide ballot measure, Coloradans pass Proposition 123, the first permanent, dedicated statewide fund for affordable housing.

William, Fruita Homeowner

To celebrate Homeownership Month, this June, CHFA invited homeowners to share what they loved about homeownership. William from Fruita, Colorado, was selected as our winner! William's "Top 5" things he loved about homeownership are listed below.

1. I have my home in a beautiful area that has large backyard for my dogs.
2. I'm building equity in my home.
3. My house is located in Fruita, Colorado, and affords me the opportunity to be part of my community.
4. I enjoy working my yard and doing upgrades around the house.
5. I have a great view from the back of my home of the Colorado National Monument.
